SPASM ODIC WAS PRICEADJUSTMENT

So Sudden Was Change Effected That Uncovered Bears Had Little Chance.

RELAXATION OF WAR SCARE

This Proved Effective in All Mediums of the Financial and Commercial Markets.

NEW YORK, October 12.—The price level in the New York stock market adjusted itself almost spasmodically to the better outlook to-day for peaceful settlement of the near Eastera question in European politics. So suddenly was the change effected that uncovered bears had very little chance to meet their requirements left over from shorts of last week.

Demand from this element in the speculation was conspicuous in the arbitrage operations for London account, where a fortnightly stock exchange extitlement is imminent. The relaxation of the war scare was effective in all mediums of the financial and commercial markets. Foreign exchange rates ran off in continuation of the movement already perceptible on Saturday, and the likelihood of gold exports at present seemed much diminished.

There was a mood of congratulation over the demonstrated absorptive power of the New York market, in yiew of the admitted volume of last week's foreign liquidation, which is placed by competent authorities at $20,000,000 to $25,000,000. With the removal of the foreign selling pressure, the organized control of the stock market was prompt to replace prices at a level to compensate for last week's declines.

The first prices represented the greater part of the advances effected during the day. Then came a pause and a lapse into pronounced duliness. This disinclination to pursue the upward movement might be construed to mean remaining doubts and apprehensions over, the foreign political position, or desire to await the election outcome. Reports of a coming settlement of the labor controversy in the English cotton milling industry were received with satisfaction, and caused an advance in the price of cotton. Discounts receded in London and Berlin, but Parls again took up the bulk of London's weekly supply of gold. The feeling of reserve towards the advance here was somewhat enhanced when foreign exchange rates recovered late in the day, and call money rates stiffened slightly.

Judge R. Carter Scott, of Henrico Circuit Court, yesterday refused the application of A. Dementi for a license to sell liquor at Hardin's Shop, in Fairfield District. The court stated as reasons for refusing the license that the location was not suitable, being near the Masonie Home, and also in close proximity to Seven Pines, a negro resort. The judge said further that there was formerly a barroom in that neighborhood, and that the results were in every way unsatisfactory.
